

Privacy Policy

Introduction

The Quality Improvement and Innovation Partnership (QIIP) respects your right to privacy as you visit our website.

The handling of all personal information by organizations funded by the Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care is governed by the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Scope

This policy applies only to this website (<http://www.qiip.ca>). It does not cover the practices of other organizations or their websites, including those you may access through the links provided on the QIIP website. For privacy information regarding the QIIP Learning Community click here: <http://learningcommunity.qiip.ca/documents/privacyandtermsofuse/privacy>.

What information we collect

When you visit our website, we automatically collect some limited information. This is not personal information and cannot directly identify a specific person. For example, we track the Internet Protocol (IP) addresses or browser type of users who access our website. This is necessary for the operation and security of our website.

At times, you may choose to give us your personal information. For example, we collect your email address when you ask questions through info@qiip.ca. This information is provided only to QIIP staff who need it to respond to your request.

We may also use this website to conduct electronic consultations in which individuals or organizations are invited to provide comments. If you send comments to us via the website, we will collect your comments and your contact details for the purposes of the consultation concerned. If you do not wish us to collect and use your comments in this way, please do not forward them.

In addition, we analyze non-identifiable website traffic data and collect cookies to improve our services. A “cookie” is a piece of text that our webserver can store on your computer. The cookies we use log your progress through the site and record how you accessed the site. They do not collect any personal information about you or about any other use of your computer.

How we use the information

We only use your personal information for the purposes for which you give it to us. We keep the information for only as long as necessary to fulfill the purpose for which it is collected.

We do not share your personal information with other organizations or individuals unless:

- it is necessary to fulfill your request
- it is required or authorized by law
- it will prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to somebody's health or safety.

Disclaimer

Although we make every effort to ensure that all information posted on our website is accurate and complete, we do not represent that it is so, or guarantee it, and accept no liability or obligation for accuracy or completeness. We reserve the right to update the information as necessary without notice.
